Re Miami letter dated 5/23/72.

It is to be noted that the electronic firing device used in the two bombs recovered by the RCMP at Ottawa, Canada, on March 29 and April 3, 1972, are quite similar to the electronic firing device which was recovered from the "Lancastrian Prince" at Miami, Florida, in 1968 in the case entitled "ORLANDO BOSCH AVILA; ET AL, CHS - FIRING OR TAMPERING WITH VESSEL - CONSPIRACY", Bureau file 45-10854, Miami file 45-1175. One of the bombs recovered in Ottawa was in a shopping bag of Jackson's-Byrons, Miami, a department store in the Miami area, and the two principal suspects developed so far, SANTIAGO GONZALEZ NARANJO and FRANCISCO NARANJO BERCANDE, reside in Miami. 45-10854

In view of the foregoing, it appears that the same individual who constructed the two bombs recovered in Ottawa may be identical to the individual who constructed the electronic firing device in the BOSCH case.

The following investigation was conducted:

MM 1337-S, who furnished valuable information in the BOSCH case, recalled that on one occasion BOSCH introduced him to a Cuban exile who was employed at Thurow Electronics, located at N. W. 23rd Street and 18th Avenue, Miami, and indicated that this individual was responsible for constructing the firing device used on BOSCH's bombs. (X)(u)

On May 22, 1972, Mr. HAROLD BELINKY, who operates Thurow Electronics, which is a subsidiary of Lykes Electronics, searched his records and advised that JESUS GARCIA, 95 N. W. 117th Street, Miami, a Cuban exile, Social Security Number 261-74-4530, worked for him as a driver from January 11, 1968, to February 29, 1969, and is now employed by Atlas TV, Miami Beach.

On May 24, 1972, INS records revealed that JESUS GARCIA FERNANDEZ, Alien Number A12 490 266, born January 31, 1936, Havana, Cuba, Social Security Number 261-74-4530, resides at 95 N. W. 117th Street, Miami.

GARCIA resided at 431 Audubon Avenue, New York City, from February, 1963, to October, 1965, and at 561 West 187th Street, New York City, from October, 1965, to November, 1966.

This file disclosed that he was a member of the Movimiento Insurreccional de Recuperacion Revolucionaria (MIRR). This is the organization of which ORLANDO BOSCH was the leader. The file also reflected that GARCIA informed

INS at time of his arrival in the United States on September 9, 1961, that he had worked for RCA in Havana from 1947 to 1953, after CASTRO took over and while serving in the Cuban militia he became a member of the underground anti-CASTRO organization known as Triple A. His immediate chief was JORGE GONZALEZ GONZALEZ, who had been an ex-Major in the Revolutionary Army (GONZALEZ was one of the defendants in the BOSCH case and is now serving a prison term). GARCIA told INS that he was involved in various acts of sabotage and destroyed a valuable piece of machinery while he was working for the Compania Litographia de Cuba before seeking asylum in the Venezuelan Embassy when he learned that the Dier (Cuban Intelligence) was searching for him.

A photograph of GARCIA was obtained from INS and on May 24, 1972, MM 1337-S identified this photograph as being identical to the individual to whom he had been introduced at Thurow Electronics by ORLANDO BOSCH. (X)(u)

This photograph refreshed the recollection of MM 1337-S and he was then able to relate the following information: (X)(u)

Sometime during the early part of 1968 BOSCH asked MM 1337-S to drive him to Thurow Electronics. MM 1337-S complied and when they arrived at this establishment BOSCH got out and went inside alone and returned about five minutes later with GARCIA. When introducing GARCIA to MM 1337-S, BOSCH stated, "This is the professional electronics technician who manufactures the bombs." GARCIA then said to BOSCH, "ORLANDO, don't forget we need the relay. Place a call to ORLANDO MIRANDA." BOSCH turned to MM 1337-S and said, "I need your address so that the relay can be sent to your address, for security reasons." (X)(u)

Subsequently, MM 1337-S received the relay and it was subsequently turned over to BOSCH. (X)(u)

MM 105-20541

MM 1337-S said this is the first time that he had ever heard of ORLANDO MIRANDA, who is the brother of AIMEE MIRANDA, one of the defendants in the BOSCH case, who is also serving a prison term. (X)(u)

MM 1337-S also recalled that shortly thereafter he went to the home of BOSCH and encountered GARCIA there. A day or two later Mrs. BOSCH told MM 1337-S that after the visit of MM 1337-S, BOSCH had been experimenting with explosives and had blown a hole in the ceiling of the house. She pointed out to MM 1337-S the damage which had been caused. (X)(u)

MM 1337-S said that he had never seen GARCIA so far as he could recall on any other occasion with BOSCH or with other members of the MIRR and he had no idea that GARCIA was a member of that organization or had had any previous contact with other members of that organization. (X)(u)

It is to be noted MM 1337-S had not yet been developed as a security informant by this office at the time of the above-described incidents. (X)(u)

MM 1337-S has advised that he has not seen GARCIA in contact with SANTIAGO GONZALEZ or FRANCISCO NARANJO or any other member of their organization, Frente de Integracion Nacionalista (FIN) and investigation in this case to date has not revealed the name of JESUS GARCIA. (X)(u)

REQUEST OF SINGLE FINGERPRINT SECTION,
IDENTIFICATION DIVISION

1. Compare the fingerprints of JESUS GARCIA FERNANDEZ, born January 31, 1936, Havana, Cuba, Alien Registration Number A12 490 266, with the latent fingerprint developed by the RCMP in this case.
